UNITED STATES vs.
Patricia Ann Cave

On Tuesday June 2nd 2011 at approximately 0105 hours, members of the Metropolitan Police Fifth District were summoned to the front of 707 24th St. NE for the report of a stabbing. Upon arrival members located a black male suffering from what appeared to be a stab wound to the chest. He was in the front of the location unconscious and unresponsive.

DC Fire and EMS responded and transported the decedent to a local hospital where he succumbed to his injury. He was pronounced dead at 0140 hours. The remains were transported to the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner where an autopsy was performed by Dr. Colvin. Her findings were that the decedent sustained one stab wound to the center of the chest penetrating the heart. Dr. Colvin ruled the manner of death a homicide.

Members of Homicide Branch Squad 6 responded to 707 24th St. NE to conduct a preliminary investigation. During the preliminary investigation members of Squad 6 made contact with the first officer on the scene. The officer later advised that when he arrived on the scene he made contact with the defendant who was wearing a white tank top and tan shorts. The defendant asked the officer about the condition of the victim; furthermore, when asked by the officer if she knew the victim, the defendant responded "no." During this brief interview, the defendant identified herself as "Pat."

Also during the preliminary investigation, members of Squad 6 gained information that the decedent had a girlfriend named "Pat" who resides in 707 24th St. NE [REDACTED]. It was revealed that the defendant and decedent argued frequently. A physical and clothing description (specifically tan khaki shorts, white tank top) was provided to the detectives while they were on the scene. While canvassing for the defendant members of Squad 6 located her as she fit the clothing and physical description provided. At this time the defendant was approached and she identified herself as "Pat." After a brief conversation she agreed to respond to the Homicide Branch for an interview in reference to the event surrounding the decedent.

Upon arrival at the Homicide Branch the defendant was advised of her Miranda Rights. She subsequently waived her rights and submitted to a video interview. During the interview the defendant explained that she and the decedent had been in an intimate relationship since October of 2010. The defendant also explained that the decedent spent nights at her home off and on since October 2010.

The events and acts described above occurred primarily in the District of Columbia and were committed as described by defendants (s) listed in the case caption

UNITED STATES vs.
Patricia Ann Cave

The defendant went on to say that she and the decedent had been involved in altercations before; in addition she stated that he had been arrested for a prior assault and threats regarding her. The defendant then went on to describe the events surrounding the decedent's stabbing on 6/2/2011. The defendant states the decedent knocked on the door, and she did not initially let him in; however, she changed her mind and decided to let the decedent enter. Once inside the decedent and defendant had some drinks. The decedent became tired and asked if he could lie down. The defendant told the decedent he could lie down in the bedroom. At this time the defendant remained in the living room and watched television alone. After awhile she became fatigued and responded to her bedroom. Once in the bedroom she became irritated at the fact that the decedent was spread all over the bed. At this time she got in the bed and began jockeying for position in order to get comfortable. The defendant asked the decedent to move, and a verbal altercation ensued. According to the defendant, the decedent began to verbally insult the defendant while pushing her aside with his elbow. The defendant explains she became irritated and attempted to call 911 for assistance with making the decedent leave the residence. The decedent slapped the phone from the defendant and began to grab the defendant around the neck. The defendant states she fought him off and then grabbed a knife that was near the bed. The defendant stated with the knife in hand "I'll cut your throat!" Also during the interview, the defendant made jabbing motions as she reenacted the scenario. According to the defendant, the decedent grabbed for the defendant's right hand which was holding the knife. At this time a struggle ensued and shortly thereafter the decedent states "bitch you stabbed me!" The decedent then got up from the bed and walked out of the apartment.

The decedent proceeded to knock on W-1's door. W-1 answered and the decedent stated "that bitch stabbed me...call 911!" The decedent then walked out of the building and collapsed. During the interview, W-1 advised that it believed the "bitch" reference to be synonymous with "Pat" who is the girlfriend of the decedent.

"Pat" is identified as Patricia Cave DOB: 8/4/1961, of 707 24th St. NE [REDACTED]

The defendant was placed under arrest at 0430 for Murder in the second degree while armed (Knife).

The events and acts described above occurred primarily in the District of Columbia and were committed as described by defendant(s) listed in the case caption
